

PROMO CODE: AAMEMBER

OFFER:

15% OFF ADULT AND SENIOR TICKETS IN THE A AND B RESERVE

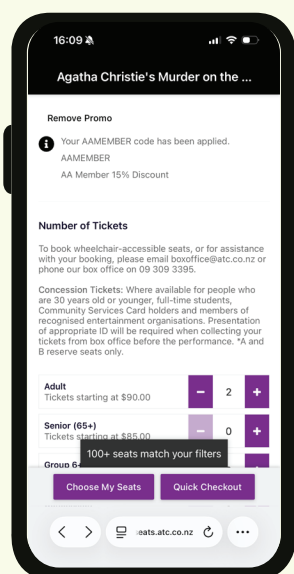

HOW TO BOOK TICKETS WITH YOUR PROMO CODE

Book your tickets at ATC.CO.NZ with no booking fees or call our box office 09 309 3395.

1

Select the date.
Tip: Shows in green have great seats available

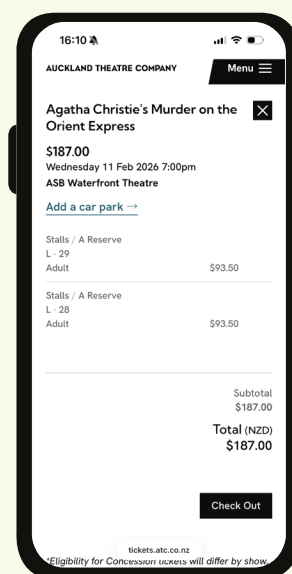

2

Enter in your PROMO CODE and click apply. Select the number of tickets you'll need.

3

Choose your two seats. Pick dark blue (A Reserve) or light blue (B Reserve).

Need parking?
You can prepurchase a theatre car park for $20.

If you need help, or have any questions, do not hesitate to call our Box Office on 09 309 3395.

Agatha Christie's Murder on the Orient Express adapted for the stage by Ken Ludwig

7 – 22 Feb

One murder, eight suspects, and a wild ride that's about to go off the rails. The classic that birthed an entire genre comes to the stage in the first show of the year.

Cameron Rhodes (King Lear, North by Northwest) reprises his role as the inscrutable Hercule Poirot in Agatha Christie's iconic whodunnit, supported by a killer cast including Jennifer Ludlham and Mayen Mehta. The fastest selling show in Auckland Theatre Company's history, audiences literally demanded to see it again.

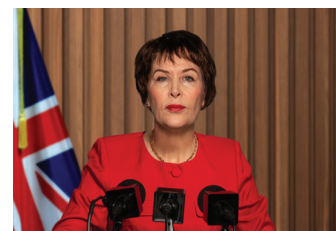

Waioira Te Ūkaipo – The Homeland

by Hone Kouka

6 – 22 Mar

Originally presented over 30 years ago at the Aotearoa New Zealand Festival of Arts, Waioira is a significant play in our cultural history as the impact of colonisation and urbanisation during the mid-60's is challenged within one family unit. As disharmony surfaces the whānau are confronted with decisions between life past and future.

Auckland Theatre Company will partner with the Aotearoa New Zealand Festival of Arts, Te Ahurei Toi o Tāmaki Auckland Arts Festival and Tawata Productions for the 30th anniversary of Waioira Te Ūkaipo – The Homeland this Autumn.

Helen Clark in Six Outfits

by Fiona Samuel

7 – 26 Apr

The world premiere of Helen Clark in Six Outfits is a satirical, humorous play fashioned on the life of former Prime Minister, Helen Clark while the nation became equally fixated with her appearance and personal life during her rise as New Zealand's first elected female Prime Minister during her term as one of the most powerful women on the political stage.

Commissioned by Auckland Theatre Company, to be directed by former-Silo Artistic Director Sophie Roberts, written by Fiona Samuel and starring the highly accomplished and brilliant, Jennifer Ward-Lealand Helen Clark in Six Outfits is a must see.

RBG: Of Many, One

by Suzie Miller

20 May – 7 Jun

Presented by Auckland Theatre Company and Auckland Live.

Based on the life of US lawyer and former Associate Justice to the Supreme Court Ruth Bader Ginsburg, RBG: Of Many, One by Sydney Theatre Company comes direct to Auckland following a return season in Australia.

Ginsburg was a groundbreaker in the American judiciary and a fierce advocate for gender equality and reproductive rights. Her life is brought to the stage by Olivier Award-winning Australian playwright, Suzie Miller (Prima Facie) and played by the astonishing Heather Mitchell.

Sons of Vao

by Vela Manusaute

18 Jun – 5 Jul

Sons of Vao by Vela Manusaute is a truly powerful and moving Pasifika play that centres on the lives of three brothers who revere their father but equally seek to escape his formidable influence. Sons of Vao is directed by the extraordinary actor/director, Anapela Polata'i'vao and stars lauded actor Beulah Koale.

A world premiere, Vela Manusaute's autobiographical Adam NZ Play Awards winning script will make you laugh, cry and cogitate all at once.

Macbeth

by William Shakespeare

28 Jul – 16 Aug

Arguably one of William Shakespeare's most famous and critically acclaimed tragedies, Macbeth is known for its exploration of ambition, evil and fate.

Following recent hit revivals on the West End and Broadway, this bold new production by director Benjamin Kilby-Henson (Romeo & Juliet, The Effect) brings Shakespeare's potent words to blood-curdling life.

Starring a stellar cast including screen legend Mark Mitchinson as the tormented Macbeth alongside the splendid Sara Wiseman as the ambitious and manipulative Lady Macbeth, Macbeth is impossible to miss.

Cabaret

Book by Joe Masteroff, Music by John Kander and Lyrics by Fred Ebb

22 Sep – 18 Oct

An Auckland Theatre Company and Auckland Live Production.

The world-renowned musical Cabaret has never been more apt to the times since its premiere 60 years ago than now. Produced in collaboration with Auckland Live and directed by Benjamin Kilby-Henson, the Emcee will be played by Matu Ngaropo who excelled as George Washington in Hamilton, together with Nomi Cohen who stars as Sally Bowles following her shining turn as Roxie Hart in the recent production of Chicago.

Packed with some of the greatest songs of the musical stage Cabaret closes the 2026 season in fabulously, decadent style.